DETAILED ACTION

The following action is in response to application 10/543,154 filed on April 6, 2006.

Claim Objections

Claim 24 is objected to because of the following informalities: on line 2, the limitation of "the rotation of the selection drum" should be replaced with --a rotation of the selection drum--. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 14 and 26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Berger '343 in view of Kamiya '535. With regard to claim 14, Berger teaches An internal control device for a mechanical gearbox comprising: first 502a and second input clutches 502b that respectively control transmission of engine torque to concentric first 504 and second 503 primary shafts carrying fixed pinions, with two secondary shafts 505/506 carrying idler pinions driven respectively by the first and second primary shafts, and with claw-coupling means of the idler pinions actuated by an assembly of forks (Figs. 1a-b; Fig. 5). Berger lacks the teaching of a common selector. Kamiya teaches a shift actuator comprising for shift forks comprising a common selector composed of a selection drum 90 and a shift carriage 66 concentric with the drum and disposed in the interior thereof is configured to assure selection of and shifting between all gear ratios of the box. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to modify Berger to employ a common selector in view of Kamiya in order to employ an actuator that takes up less space within the transmission housing. With regard to claim 26, Berger teaches the device, wherein the selection drum disengages a gear ratio of a same parity as that in a course of selection (Fig. 5).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 15-25 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Fournier, Schreiber, Fogelberg, Leoffler, Leimbach, Hennequet and Hughes have been cited to show similar transmissions and controls.

FACSIMILE TRANSMISSION

Submission of your response by facsimile transmission is encouraged. The central facsimile number is (571) 273-8300. Recognizing the fact that reducing cycle time in the processing and examination of patent applications will effectively increase a patent's term, it is to your benefit to submit responses by facsimile transmission whenever permissible. Such submission will place the response directly in our examining group's hands and will eliminate Post Office processing and delivery time as well as the PTO's mail room processing and delivery time. For a complete list of correspondence not permitted by facsimile transmission, see MPEP 502.01. In general, most responses and/or amendments not requiring a fee, as well as those requiring a fee but charging such fee to a deposit account, can be submitted by facsimile transmission. Responses requiring a fee which applicant is paying by check should not be submitting by facsimile transmission separately from the check.

Responses submitted by facsimile transmission should include a Certificate of Transmission (MPEP 512). The following is an example of the format the certification might take:

I hereby certify that this correspondence is being facsimile transmitted to the Patent and Trademark Office (Fax No. (571) 273-8300) on _____ (Date)

Typed or printed name of person signing this certificate:

(Signature)

If your response is submitted by facsimile transmission, you are hereby reminded that the original should be retained as evidence of authenticity (37 CFR 1.4 and MPEP 502.02). Please do not separately mail the original or another copy unless required by the Patent and Trademark Office. Submission of the original response or a follow-up copy of the response after your response has been transmitted by facsimile will only cause further unnecessary delays in the processing of your application; duplicate responses where fees are charged to a deposit account may result in those fees being charged twice.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Roger L. Pang whose telephone number is 571-272-7096. The examiner can normally be reached on 5:30am to 4:00pm.
